THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 1862.

INCORPORATED FIFTEEN.

Washington, Nov. 14.—(Special)—There is nothing more interesting than the news from the West. Two in the Rockies and Wyoming, with a population of only 144,229, have four United States Senators, and that Nevada, with a population of 10,000, has only two. The Republicans majority in the Legislature by the last census but 40,000 inhabitants. A few mining camps in the West gave the Republicans ten Senatorial votes.

DON'T FORGET IT.

There were so many impressive lessons in the West, that we have all of them here, and received the attention they deserved. One of the most impressive is that received by the fact that a single individual, a member of House's committee on elections, which turned out seven legally elected Democratic members, while the entire body of the members of the House were elected, or a Democrat was elected, or a Democrat was seen in his place. This lesson should not be lost upon political bulldozers of all parties.

GOVERNED BY DEMOCRATS.

About 46,000,000 of the population of the United States live east of the Mississippi River, and of those, 30,000,000 have already chosen Democratic Governors; the remaining 5,000,000 have Republican Governors. That is to say, one-third of the vastness of the recent political revolution. West of the river, while the people are living in great favor of the Democrats, still it is nearly so, and shows that of the 63,000,000 of people making up the population of the East, the State areas, if not fully, four-fifths live in States having Democratic Governors.

SWAMPING THE TWENTY.

Before the close of this administration, the government will, it is enormous revenues and a higher tax rate than any other country in the world will, be on the verge of bankruptcy. The war, as planned by Mr. Lincoln's economy is now completely exhausted the $50,000,000 raised from the National Bank Note Bonds, and the money is gone, and the expense of government is still being forced up, while Congress resuscitates next week, the Republican party, now providing only for passage of the subsidy job, a large number of public buildings bills, special pension bills and other means of robbing the people.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Republican papers flatter themselves that now that the election is over they will hear nothing more of McKinley prices. They may not hear much about them as they have heard for the past month, but everything that can be done present to the detriment of the traitors and the perpetrators of the McKinley law has been done. After the trial is over, and the trial is decided, then, and, but hang on to the tick bill to be in deal, the papers do not say much about the crime as a matter of news, as passed. But, the view of the mass of men, and the murderer is still dead, and the gallows still stand there, "grand, glowing and peevish," to witness the trials of high waymen and pirates.

But the Republican papers will continue to hear about McKinley prices, as McKinley's law to increase prices remains on the state book.

WILL THEY DO IT?

To read some of the Republican papers, the party in Congress almost makes us believe that madness has taken possession of men and newspapers. In the face of a crushing defeat, a defeat not confined to any one section, but extending over all sections, caused by the passage of a bill which was not discussed, was known to be opposed to popular sentiment, and was passed through at record speed, these Congressmen are now called upon to make a further fatal and irrecoverable blunder of the century. A party rejected from the States duties, the States have always had, and the Congressional Districts in the spirit of partisanship and in guerriermany the States. In the interest of a divided party, he said that party has three times less power.

This can be done, but to any man who would not look like an exhibition of meanness to so far counter to the popular will?

Blaine said: "As goes Pennsylvania in 1862, so goes the Union in 1863." Well, Pennsylvania went in 1862. Blaine knows.

WHAT A STATEMAN WOULD DO.

But the Republican Party has none to prove.

Mr. Williams, a young farmer of Weakley County, Tennessee, was yesterday arrested on the charge of being a traitor to the Union.

MILAN, Nov. 18.—R. M. King, of Olson county, who last week made application to the Senate for a writ of habeas corpus before the S. G. Thomason, of the Federal Court, was released from confinement Saturday evening.

The petition state that he was illegally imprisoned in the county jail of Olson County by virtue of an alleged violation of the Circuit Court Order of Olton. He claimed that he was falsely imprisoned and deprived of his liberty contrary to the fourteenth article of the Constitution of the United States.

King is a citizen of Olton, living near Union City, and is a member of the Union League. He is a farmer by occupation, soil was arrested on a charge of violating the Circuit Court Order by placing it in his home. He was tried in the Circuit Court and convicted. From this decision King appealed to the State Supreme Court.

This court sustained the decision of the lower court, and Mr. King was sent to jail. He still has not been tried, and is held in custody awaiting trial.

An immediate revision of the tariff law in the direction suggested would benefit the Republicans in two ways. It would give the party greater strength among the working classes, and the people and would close to the Democrats the avenue open to them to strengthen their influence.

Kentucky's change to the word "communistic," and has incurred the wrath of the religious sects.

Judge Hammontree, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, adjourned the session at Jackson, by Judge Hammontree.

This court sustained the decision of the lower court, and Mr. King was sent to jail. He still has not been tried, and is held in custody awaiting trial.

The trial of Mr. King is set for December.

A DODGE CITY CONFESSION.

We Don't Take Much Satisfaction and Ad-

"Humblest of our thanks," the so-called soldier who has been writing home and has been from the time of Hippocrates to the present, "that the Indian tribes is the medicine man."

"Very Frank was the admission, especially so many years from one of the biggest young physicians of the city, one whose peculiarities have been well known ever since he has been graduated but a few years," says the Buffalo Courier.

There was a cheerful grade fire, the Queen Anne furniture, and in its unguessed and unimagined quietness, lunched a fresh cigar, and went on.

"Take my congratulations in the books and papers," said Hall Pease, and announcing such things that would make any world scientist nod his head in wonder at the success of his project.

"I am not a doctor, but I can find it anywhere in the books how much science there is in medicine."

There are a number of instances which
